

Media Contact: Steve Waldschmidt
604.731.5483
steve@pacifictheatre.org
March 16, 2005

For Immediate Release

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Please include in your APRIL & MAY calendar listings & announcements.

*"That's what you always say - real life hasn't begun yet.
You'd just better be right."*

Shadowlands

by William Nicholson

VANCOUVER, B.C. Opens May 6 to 28, 2005

Pacific Theatre proudly closes its 2004-2005 season with Shadowlands by William Nicholson. When C.S. Lewis meets the outspoken Joy Davidman, his sheltered Oxford life is upended. Only the prospect of losing her reveals the depth of his feelings, as painful realities collide with the reassuring childhood fantasies of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe. An intimate story of faith and doubt.

"Shadowlands poses classic questions about God, pain and love, but mostly it makes you determined to embrace life. You can't ask much more of a play than that." - San Francisco Chronicle.

Shadowlands opens May 6 to 28 at Pacific Theatre. For tickets ($14-$28) and information call 604.731.5518 or visit pacifictheatre.org. Group discounts available! That's 604.731.5518 or pacifictheatre.org!

- 30 -

